Task #1

Read the following paper:

David E. Millard, Charlie Hargood, Michael O. Jewell, and Mark J. Weal. 2013. Canyons, deltas and plains: towards a unified sculptural model of location-based hypertext. In Proceedings of the 24th ACM Conference on Hypertext and Social Media (HT '13). ACM, New York, NY, USA, 109-118.
DOI=10.1145/2481492.2481504 <http://doi.acm.org/10.1145/2481492.2481504>

Analyze the paper:

- What was the goal of this work?
- What methodology(ies) were employed?
- What were the findings?
- What are the limitations of this work?
- What future work could be conducted to extend and/or elaborate the results?
- What is the applicability of the results?

Be prepared to present your findings when asked.

Prepare a short summary of your answers (1-2 paragraphs).

Name the file XXXXX_Millard13.pdf, where XXXXX serves as your personal identifier.

Submit the file to the directory prep17
